The Fox Springs property was sold to C. C. Davis, a few days ago, for $2,250.

SAMUEL BULGER, of Fleming county, arrested in Maysville for petit larceny, has been released.

Mr. Chas. H. Stine, for some time past, employed on the Flemingsburg Democrat, has given up printing, and taken a place in a drug store at Flemingsburg.

At Cincinnati, one day last week Miss Jessie Markwell, of Fleming county, had a pocket book containing twenty dollars snatched from her upon the street.

Two barns and a dwelling house on the farm of Mr. Joseph Bivens in Lewis county, were entirely destroyed by the storm on the 26th. Mrs. Bivens had both legs and one arm broken. The roof of the dwelling was carried a distance of three miles.

WINFIELD HARRIS is in the Big Sandy Valley laboring zealously, as a Mormon Missionary, and has prevailed on a number of ignorant people to give up their homes in Eastern Kentucky, and go to Utah. The Mormons also have a church in Johnson county, Ky.

THE Louisville Commercial which first made the charges against Capt. J. T. Henry now denounces as "a colossal lie" the statement that it has charged "distinctly that Capt. Henry used obscenity in the presence and hearing of ladies and made an indecent exposure of his person."

THE friends of Mr. Andrew Brittain and others, who lost almost everything they had by the recent storm, are circulating a subscription list for their benefit. As it is a case that appeals very strongly to the sympathies of the public, it is to be hoped a sufficient sum will be raised to relieve the immediate necessities of the sufferers.

THE Germantown correspondent of the Bracken Chronicle says:

A young man from the heart of old Mason, had been courting for some time near Fernleaf. One evening the mother familias noticed that he made frequent visits from the parlor to his satchel in the hall, and concluded to ascertain the occasion of it. She was much relieved to find it was only a quiet bottle of bromide of potassa solution that he was using to quiet his nerves. He doubtless popped the question that evening.

A LARGE number of seats have been reserved by holders of tickets to the entertainment this evening by the Smith Family and Decorative Sisters. The outlook is that there will be a large audience present. The programme is interesting and amusing and is sure to meet the warm approval of all. If you want to pass the evening pleasantly, don't fail to attend.

A BRUTE

Who Deserves the Severest Punishment the Law Inflicts.

Last night about half-past seven o'clock, Hamilton Combst, a young man twenty-two or twenty-three years old, who stated that he lives near Murphysville, in this county, was detected in a horrible and disgusting crime. The offense was committed in a yard in the rear of Weiland's saloon on Market street, and was witnessed by a number of persons, who gave the disgusting details in full at the examining trial before Mayor January this morning. Combst was held to appear for trial at the Circuit Court in the sum of $200. The witnesses were sent immediately before the grand jury and it is probable an indictment will be reported to-day, and the trial take place at the present term of the court. The penalty for the crime is fixed by the statutes at confinement in the penitentiary from two to five years. Deputy Marshal McAuliff was the arresting officer. Combst attempted to escape by running but was overtaken by the officer and several citizens who took up the chase.

Horrible Fate.

OWINGSVILLE, Ky., April 27, 1882.—Over the river in Fleming county, the wife of Mr. R. M. Boyd was horribly burned. Standing near the fire and engaged in cutting the hair of one of her little boys, her dress took fire and was in a blaze before she noticed it. It was impossible to smother the flames, which continued until every vestige of her clothing was burned off leaving her body in a frightful condition. The physician who attended her says there is no possible chance of her recovery. The hair on her head was burned entirely off. The little boy was badly burned while clinging to his mother. His recovery is also doubtful. It is one of the saddest affairs that has ever occurred here.

Sales of Land.

The following changes in the ownership of land have been recorded at the office of the Clerk of the County Court since our last report:

Nancy E. Barrett to Caroline Sronfe, grantor's interest in 80½ acres of land near Dover; consideration, $475.

Faunce Worthington and son to Thomas R. Haughey, 95 acres of land, near Fern Leaf; consideration, $5,000.

Michael Walton and wife to E. Clarke, 2 acres 1 rod and 8 poles of land near Mayslick; consideration, $600.

W. W. Baldwin and wife to Henry Gibbs, colored, 11 acres, 1 rod and 21 poles of land near Washington; consideration, $1,422.65.

PERSONALS.

Points About People Here and Elsewhere.

Mrs. Virginia Stroube, of Augusta, was stricken by paralysis a few days ago.

Mr. Taylor J. Riley, late city editor of the Lexington Transcript, has been employed by a Chicago firm to write up county history in Indiana.

THE case of Perry Rice vs. the Maysville and Lexington Turnpike Road Company, is the most important case upon the circuit court docket. It is a suit to recover $15,000 claimed as damages, sustained by the plaintiff in an injury to his left eye from the projecting limb of a thorn tree, while riding upon the road. The jury was obtained and sworn yesterday. The plaintiff and his brother, Joseph Rice, were heard as witnesses, and several depositions on the same side read. The case is still upon trial to-day, and will probably occupy the balance of this week if it does not run into the next. The array of counsel upon both sides is very strong, and shows how earnestly each party is guarding and defending its rights. Messrs. Ross & Kennedy and Whitaker & Robertson represent the plaintiff, while Wm. H. Wadsworth & Sons, Stanton & Larew and E. C. Phister & Son are for the Turnpike Company.

THE City of Ironton is laid up at Ripley.

RALPH WALDO EMMERSON died at Concord, Mass., Thursday.

THE railroad laborers of Huntington's force are at work at three points a short distance below Augusta. There are three squads of about twenty-five men each. The C. & S. E. authorities have engaged about three hundred men to work between Augusta and Newport on bridge work. This work is to be pushed forward as it is much behind the grading. Major Kirby's force is engaged between Augusta and Foster.

A CORRESPONDENT of the Louisville Post asked this question of a close observer at Frankfort: "Who among the younger members, those serving their first term, have commended themselves to the public as capable officials?" The answer respecting Mr. Kehoe was: "For equanimity J. Dexter Kehoe never had a superior. His sphinx-like face, set in its frame of side whiskers, is as imperturbable as his name is uncommon. If he were standing on the street corner now, and some one should explode a bomb-shell under his coat-tail, he would simply look round and say, 'humph!' He is a rare bird—and a good one."
